

Spring 2018 Brown Bag Advising Colloquia Come Join the Discussion!

“Intro to the Learning Access Program (LAP)”

Bob Ross, Coordinator of Services for Students with Disabilities

Patty McConville, Coordinator of Services for Students with Disabilities

Maria Spade, Adaptive Technology Specialist

Thursday, February 1, 12:30 p.m., Campus Meeting Room 5

The Learning Access Program at Stockton offers a multitude of services and accommodations for students with disabilities on campus. Many students have social and emotional challenges. LAP staff will discuss strategies for faculty who have students in class with Autism Spectrum Disorder. They will also review the accommodation process and types of accommodations, plus tips for faculty working with students who have visual and hearing impairments.

“Getting Ready for Precepting”

Joe LoSasso, Registrar, Paula Dollarhide, Academic Advising

Tuesday, March 20, 12:30 p.m. in C135

Wednesday, March 21, 12:45 p.m. in F226

Stockton rolls out a new, easier registration system for students this spring. Come see a demonstration by Registrar Joe LoSasso. We will also answer any questions about Degree Works, setting up blackboard for precepting, curricular requirements, and newer campus policies and procedures. What learning outcomes should students gain from precepting? How do you build relationships with your preceptees? Let's get ready for precepting together.

“Drop-in Advising Clinics” – Let Us Answer Your Advising Questions!

Advising Staff Members will be available in Campus Center 242 (Conference Room)

March 19, 3:30-5:00; March 21, 10:30-12:20 p.m.; and March 22, 2:30-4:20 p.m.

Staff from the Center for Academic Advising will be available to answer your precepting questions as we move into advising season. Drop in our office and bring any questions you have about precepting, policies, procedures, graduation, using technology, and how to approach precepting. Staff members will work with you in a one-on-one format. The Center for Academic Advising is here to help!
