For the mature job-hunter, this two-part course covers most aspects of the job search, including where to find open positions, applications and resumes, interviewing techniques, missteps to avoid, and related topics. The facilitator was manager of employment at Rider University for many years, and is retired herself. Two sessions of one hour each (with breaks), this course is lively, participatory, and fun for participants. The aim is to make it easy for you to develop confidence in your ability to be hired into the job you want.
