

QUICK TIPS

TEACHING WITH ZOOM

VIDEO CONFERENCING TIPS

CHUNK

Break a 60-minute lecture into six 10-minute segments to help students focus and learn better.

SEGMENT

ACTIVE LEARNING

PACE

Alternate between lecture (talking) and activities to promote student attention and learning.

GROUP

Use Zoom breakout rooms to group 5-7 students for a lively discussion. In the main Zoom room, groups may share a brief discussion summary with the entire class .

DISCUSS

USE GRAPHICS

VISUALS

Zoom conferencing is visual. Although faces are interesting, consider screen sharing PowerPoints, videos and images to capture student attention. Avoid too much text.

STOCKTON | CENTER FOR TEACHING
UNIVERSITY | & LEARNING DESIGN

Visit www.stockton.edu/ctld to learn more

Content by Dr.Doug Harvey- Associate Professor of Instructional Technology