

VISITING WRITERS

STOCKTON UNIVERSITY &
THE SCHOOL OF ARTS & HUMANITIES LITERATURE PROGRAM PRESENT

Peter Murphy

Thursday, February 21, 2019 | 6:00 PM |
L112

Peter Murphy

Peter E. Murphy was born in Wales and grew up in New York City where he operated heavy equipment, managed a nightclub and drove a taxi. He is the author of ten books and chapbooks including Stubborn Child, a finalist for the Paterson Poetry Prize, and Looking for Thelma, winner of the inaugural Wilt Nonfiction Chapbook Prize sponsored by the Lightning Key Review of St. Leo's University. He is the founder of Murphy Writing of Stockton University.

RAVENS

WOOD

THIS IS A FREE EVENT

stockton.edu/arhu

New Jersey's Distinctive Public University • Stockton is an Equal Opportunity Institution

STOCKTON UNIVERSITY | SCHOOL OF ARTS & HUMANITIES

Stockton University is committed to providing equal access to its programs and facilities for persons with disabilities. It is recommended that persons with special needs notify 609.652.4505 or Brian Lyons at Brian.Lyons@stockton.edu at least 14 days before the event in order to assist the University in providing appropriate accommodations.