

The Master of Arts in Holocaust and Genocide Studies Lecture Series presents:
ETHNIC VIOLENCE AND REFUGEE CRISIS:
THE CASE OF THE ROHINGYAS IN SOUTH ASIA

Presented by Dr. Srobana Bhattacharya

Professor Srobana Bhattacharya is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science and International Studies at Georgia Southern University. Dr. Bhattacharya received her Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 2013. She teaches and researches in the field of Comparative Politics and International Relations, with a focus on political conflict and terrorism. Dr. Bhattacharya has conducted extensive field research in India to study patterns of Maoist conflict, and most recently in Bangladesh to study the Rohingya refugee crisis in South and Southeast Asia. Dr. Bhattacharya's articles have been published in leading academic journals.

*And a screening of her documentary film, *The Voices of Rohingya Refugees

Date: Wednesday, November
4, 2020

Time: 6:00 – 8:00 pm

Location: Online via Zoom

Join with Zoom Meeting ID:
956 7268 7031

For New Jersey Educators: 2.0 PDH (professional development hours)

OspreyAdvantage is available for Stockton University students

This event is sponsored by the following programs and organizations at Stockton University:

Global Studies, Holocaust and Genocide Studies Minor, Master of Arts in Holocaust and Genocide Studies Society, Migration Studies Minor, Office of Global Engagement, and Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center.

Stockton University is an Equal Opportunity Institution

Questions? 609-652-4699 or mahg@stockton.edu