

Lee Ann Guenther, PT, DPT, MS has been a NJ licensed physical therapist since she graduated from the University of Pennsylvania with her entry-level PT degree in 1980. She has practiced in a variety of clinical settings. Over the past decade, her primary practice has been providing pediatric school-based physical therapy services.

Dr. Guenther has been on the faculty of the Physical Therapy Program at Stockton University since 1989. She served as the Director of Clinical Education for twenty-seven years, and she continues to serve on the DPT Program faculty. Dr. Guenther has taught entry level, post-professional, and continuing education classes on ethics. She has taught the New Jersey State Board of Physical Therapy Examiners approved classes in "Ethics and Jurisprudence" or "Ethics" since the requirement was initiated in the 2008-2010 license cycle.

Dr. Guenther's current research involves interprofessional education and its impact on practice as well as an exploration of ethical decision-making. Her work has been presented at the Association of Schools of Allied Health's National Conferences, the international All Together Better Health Conference and APTA's Combined Sections Meeting (CSM). Dr. Guenther has published in the Journal of Allied Health Professions, the PT Journal and the journal of the HPA Section of the APTA. She is a former member of the New Jersey State Board of Physical Therapy Examiners and past Chair of the aptaNJ Ethics Committee. Dr. Guenther continues to serve on the Ethics Committee.
