Understanding Antisemitism Today

Monday, April 8, 2024

6:00 PM - 7:30 PM | In-Person Event

Sheryl Silver Ochayon holds a law degree from Harvard Law School, a BA in History from the State University of New York at Binghamton, and a Certificate in Genocide Studies from Stockton University. Currently, Sheryl is Yad Vashem's Project Director for Echoes & Reflections, a program that empowers American middle and high school educators to confidently teach the Holocaust, with dynamic classroom materials and professional development.

Use Parking Lots 6 & 7

Antisemitism did not fade after the Holocaust but is a global phenomenon that continues to escalate dramatically, especially after October 7, 2023. What does antisemitism look like today? Where did it come from? Is today's anti-Zionism different than antisemitism? Join Sheryl Ochayon, Project Director of Echoes & Reflections for Yad Vashem, the World Holocaust Remembrance Center, to explore these questions and gain strategies to respond to them.
