

Office of Public Relations
Pomona, NJ 08240

Stockton's Holocaust Resource Center Will Assist in Preserving Memories of Jews Who Were Killed During the Holocaust

For Immediate Release

Thursday, April 05, 2007

Contact: Tim Kelly
Stockton Public Relations
(609) 652-4950

GALLOWAY TWP. – The Holocaust Resource Center of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey announces its participation in support of the memorial known as Yad Vashem in Jerusalem. This memorial is dedicated to the Jewish people who were murdered during the Holocaust and contains the world's largest repository of information on this event.

Yad Vashem, like the Holocaust Resource Center, is a leader in Shoah education, commemoration, research and documentation. (In Modern Hebrew, the Holocaust is known as the Shoah.)

Stockton's Holocaust Resource Center will participate in Yad Vashem's Shoah Victims' Database. This database is an internationally recognized program developed by Yad Vashem to carry on the memory of the victims of the Holocaust. The goal of Yad Vashem is to perpetuate the memory of the six million Jewish victims by asking each Holocaust survivor family worldwide to register information on those individuals who perished during the Holocaust. Currently three million Jewish victims have been registered on Yad Vashem's Central Database of Holocaust Victims. Yad Vashem's goal is to register the remaining three million Jewish victims. To submit pages of testimony and photos, if available, of victims of the Holocaust, go to www.yadvashem.org. The Holocaust Resource Center at Stockton College can be reached at (609) 652-4699 and can assist you if needed.

#