Galloway Township, NJ- The Stockton Disney Association, a student organization at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, is hosting "Walking for Wishes" benefitting Make-A-Wish New Jersey on Sunday, April 13, 2014 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. on the college's main Galloway campus.

The event begins at the D-Wing Plaza. Walkers will follow a loop that goes around the college's scenic Lake Fred. The club will be hosting a variety of children's activities, including face painting and coloring behind the college's main Campus Center (weather permitting). There will also be music, snacks and door prizes – many of which have been donated by local businesses.

Guests are encouraged to wear their favorite Disney costume or attire.

Net proceeds will benefit Make-A-Wish New Jersey, which grants wishes to children with life-threatening medical conditions.

Tickets are $10 at the door or can be purchased in advance at the college's Campus Center information desk (609-652-4706). Children under the age of 5 will be admitted free.
