Galloway Township, NJ- Students who attend classes at the Manahawkin instructional site of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey can get counseling on course selection, choice of major and curriculum planning on Monday, Oct. 21.

Students thinking about attending Stockton or former students considering completing their degrees are also invited to talk with Cynthia McCloskey, assistant director of the Center for Academic Advising. She will be at the 712 East Bay Ave., Manahawkin site from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the 21st.

McCloskey will be available to advise current students on possible courses for the spring 2014 semester and analyze transcripts from other colleges to help potential Stockton students form a plan of action for higher education.

Call 609.626.3883 or stop in the Ocean County instructional site to sign up
