Galloway, NJ - Stockton University's Manahawkin Instructional Site will host a Lunch & Learn lecture, "The Porajamos: The Fate of the European Roma (Gypsies) Under the Third Reich," on Friday, Feb. 19, 2016.

The Porajamos or the Romani Genocide is often neglected when studying the horrors of World War II and the Holocaust. This presentation will give audience members a better understanding of the Roma/Sinti (gypsy) community and what happened to many of them during the era of the Third Reich.

Presenter Andrea Heymann is in her last semester of graduate school and will be graduating from Stockton University in May with a Master of Arts in Holocaust and Genocide Studies.

The free event, which provides lunch, will be held at the Manahawkin Instructional Site, located at 712 E. Bay Ave., at noon. Attendees are requested to RSVP by calling 609-626-3883.

For more information on activities and classes at the Manahawkin Instructional Site, visit: Stockton.edu/Manahawkin or call 609-626-3883.
