Galloway, NJ – Singer/songwriter Eric Hutchinson will headline at the Stockton Performing Arts Center, located on the main Galloway campus, on Friday, March 4. Hutchinson will perform his hits including, “Tell the World,” “Rock and Roll,” “Watching You Watching Him” and “Ok, It’s Alright with Me.”

Show time is at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $32. Tickets may be ordered online at www.stockton.edu/pac or by calling the Box Office at (609) 652-9000. The Box Office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 90 minutes before the performance. For group sales, call (609) 652-4786.

Hutchinson’s latest studio album, Pure Fiction, produced by Jerrod Bettis (Adele, The Lonely Island) and Aben Eubanks debuted in the Top 10 on iTunes’ overall albums chart and in the Top 5 of iTunes’ Pop albums chart.

Idolator.com called Hutchinson’s music “inescapably catchy” and Esquire.com said, “His sunny lyrics reveal a wry double edge.” The Wall Street Journal Speakeasy praised “Tell the World,” the first single from Pure Fiction, as “joyous” and the song was tapped as the theme song for the NBC series, “Growing Up Fisher.”

“A Little More,” another track from Pure Fiction, was heard in a Netflix worldwide advertising campaign. Hailed as “a vibrant conduit for catchy, radio-ready pop” by AllMusic.com, Hutchinson has been recording his next album in New York City and Los Angeles, which will be released this summer.

Pure Fiction follows 2012’s Moving Up Living Down, which bowed in the Top 30 of the Billboard 200.

Hutchinson made his full-length debut in 2007 with the independently released Sounds Like This, which entered Billboard's Heatseekers chart at No. 1 and yielded three radio hits, including the Gold-certified "Rock and Roll."

A TV favorite, Hutchinson has performed on shows including, TODAY, Conan, Late Show with David Letterman, Jimmy Kimmel Live, The Tonight Show with Jay Leno and The Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson.

For patrons with special needs, the Stockton Performing Arts Center offers wheelchair accessible seating, large type programs and listening assistive devices. Please identify any needs you may have when making a reservation.

The Stockton Performing Arts Center, the Jersey Shore's Center for the Arts, is located on the campus of Stockton University, on Vera King Farris Drive, off Jimmie Leeds Road, in Galloway Township. Just 12 miles west of Atlantic City, the center is easily accessible from the Garden State Parkway and the Atlantic City Expressway.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts and by funds from the National Endowment for the Arts.
