Galloway Township, NJ- The Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey is pleased to announce a free and open to the public film event on Wednesday, August 22, 2012, 7:00 pm, at Beth El Synagogue, 500 North Jerome Avenue, Margate. Seating is on a first come, first serve basis. No tickets are needed.

The Academy Award nominated film, The Courage to Care, narrated by Elie Wiesel, will be shown. This documentary film is about Righteous Gentiles during World War II. The film tells the life stories of non-Jews who risked their lives to save Jews during the Holocaust. The rescuers and survivors are from countries in Europe—France, the Netherlands, and Poland.

The event will have a presentation including a question and answer session led by the film's co-producer, Dr. Carol Rittner, RSM.

Dr. Carol Rittner is a Roman Catholic nun (Religious Sisters of Mercy), Distinguished Professor of Holocaust & Genocide Studies and the Dr. Marsha R. Grossman Professor of Holocaust Studies at Stockton College.

Sponsors of the film event are The Sam Azeez Museum of Woodbine Heritage of Stockton College, Beth El Synagogue, Board of Jewish Education of Atlantic & Cape May Counties, Catholic-Jewish Commission of the Diocese of Camden, and the Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at Stockton College.

For questions, please contact the Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at 609-652-4699.
