Galloway Township, NJ- The Richard Stockton College's Office of Veterans Affairs and the School of Education present the conference "Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgendered Veterans: What Does it All Mean?" on Thursday, October 25, 2012, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Campus Center Events Room. The conference is designed to explore the challenges military and veteran LGBT students face when transitioning from the military to college campuses and civilian life.

The event, free and open to the public, will feature keynote speeches from SFC Denny Meyer, USN, USAR, the editor of GayMilitarySignal.com and Sgt. Chris "Bobcat" Camacho, OutServe NY/NJ/Pa Chapter leader. Other guests and panel discussion groups are being confirmed and will soon be announced.

A continental breakfast will be provided to attendees. To register, or for more information, call Patrick Shields at 609-652-4315 or Jason Babin at 609-626-3419.
