OVERVIEW: ADVISOR RIGHTS & ROLE IN TITLE IX PROCEEDINGS

- Advisor of Choice Provision
- Advisor Types, Roles, Expectations, and Limitations
- Considerations for Being an Advisor

ADVISOR OF CHOICE

- Parties must have the same opportunities to have others present during any proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by the Advisor of their choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney
- May not limit the choice or presence of Advisor for either the Complainant or Respondent
 - Don't have to provide an attorney or equivalently educated/trained Advisor to one party just because the other party has one
- Can regulate the extent to which Advisors may participate in the proceedings, if restrictions apply equally to all parties

- The Title IX regulations overlap with similar provisions in VAWA Section 304*
 - VAWA applies to sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking
 - Title IX applies to all four of the above PLUS sexual harassment

*Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013

- The Title IX process essentially systematizes two types of Advisors:
 - The Advisor of Choice
 - May be present for every meeting, interview, hearing
 - The Institution-Appointed Advisor
 - Requirement applies only to higher education
 - This Advisor may accompany the party throughout the entire resolution process, but the institution may limit this Advisor to participating in the hearing only and will usually only appoint this Advisor if the party has not chosen one by the time of the hearing

INSTITUTION-APPOINTED ADVISOR

- Advisee isn't the Advisor's "client"
- Conversations unlikely to be governed by any "privilege" regardless of role
- If Advisor is also an institutionally-mandated reporter, what happens if employer asks Advisor to disclose information that has been shared by an advisee?
- What if an advisee asks an Advisor to do something they consider unethical, such as mislead or conceal evidence?
- What if an Advisor knows their advisee is knowingly providing false or misleading information?
- Advisors need an ethical code or strong personal/professional integrity to guide them

- An Advisor could be called by the other party as a witness and asked about what they know (at Recipient's discretion)
 - Unless an institutional rule prohibits this or confers "confidentiality" on the Advisor
- Advisors may not like or believe an advisee
- An advisee may not like or trust their Advisor
- Advisors are not required to be aligned with their advisee, but if not, friction can result

WHO CAN SERVE AS AN ADVISOR?

- Friends, family, roommates, faculty, college or school staff members, attorneys, etc.
- Institutional rules will determine if a party may have more than one Advisor
 - Union representation cases
 - When a party wants an Advisor and an emotional support person
 - In K-12, the parties may have an Advisor and parents/guardians also are entitled to participate
- If more than one Advisor is not permitted, the advisee can rotate Advisors during the process, or the advisee can have one Advisor outside the meeting, and one inside with them

- An individual can't advise both a Complainant and Respondent in the same matter
- Must be eligible and available, meaning that institutional or school employees can refuse to serve as an Advisor for any reason, and should do so if it would place them in the position of a conflict of interest or commitment
- If an individual serves as both an Advisor and has a role as a witness in the matter, they may wind up limiting the efficacy of their testimony as a witness because the Decision-maker may discount their credibility based on their dual roles

ROLE OF THE ADVISOR

Depending upon institutional policy and advisee requests, and Advisor may:

- Accompany their advisee through all phases of the resolution process and explain the process
- Help their advisee decide whether to file a formal complaint and navigate other strategic issues such as whether to participate in informal resolution
- Prepare their advisee to respond to questions during the investigation, even rehearsing beforehand, and determine what evidence to share during an interview

- Help the advisee access supportive measures, community resources, and advocacy services
- Help the advisee to review and comment on the investigation report
- Help the advisee to advocate for the inclusion or exclusion of evidence from the process
- Help the advisee prepare for the hearing (documentation, opening statements, closing statements, impact statements, etc.), and must conduct any cross-examination at the hearing
- Help the advisee to frame the appeal and prepare appeal documentation
