I. POLICY:

- A. Eligibility for remission benefits for foreign nationals will be limited to those individuals holding a valid nonimmigrant visa issued in accordance with either paragraph 15(F) (i) or 15(J) of Section 1101, Chapter 12, Title 8, U.S. Code Annotated.
- B. Within the above categories, eligibility is further limited to those establishing need as indicated in a completed foreign student financial aid form.
- C. Remission of out-of-state tuition may be granted to eligible foreign nationals numbering up to one percent of the anticipated FTE enrollment. The cutoff of the one percent quota will be made based on the date that financial aid eligibility is established with the Office of Financial Aid.

D. Nonimmigrant Categories

1. Paragraph 15(F) (i) applies to a class of aliens issued a nonimmigrant visa by a U.S. official. The basis of issue centers on his being an alien having a residence in a foreign country which he has no intention of abandoning, and being a bona fide student qualified to pursue a full course of study at an established institution of learning or other recognized place of study- in the United States. The institution was particularly designated by him and approved by the Attorney General after consultation with the Office of Education of the United States. The institution or place of study shall have agreed to report to the Attorney General the termination of attendance of each nonimmigrant student, and if any such institution of learning or place of study fails to make reports promptly the approval shall be withdrawn. Paragraph 15(F) (ii) applies to the alien spouse and minor children of any such alien if accompanying him or following to join him.

2. Paragraph 15(J) applies to a class of alien issued a nonimmigrant visa by the U.S. official. The basis of issue involves his being an alien having a residence in a foreign country which he has no intention of abandoning, and being a bona fide student, scholar, trainee, teacher, professor, research assistant, specialist, or leader in a field of specialized knowledge or skill, or other person of similar description, coming temporarily to the United States as a participant in a program designated by the Secretary of the State. The programs' purpose is teaching, instructing, or lecturing, studying, observing, conducting research, consulting, demonstrating special skills, or receiving training. The paragraph includes the alien spouse and minor children of any such alien, if accompanying him or following to join him.
