POLICY:

All full-time undergraduate and graduate students are eligible to live in University housing. The University offers various housing options in Galloway and Atlantic City, New Jersey. Students may contract to reside in University housing for the academic year or for a 12-month period. Students accepted into the Transfer Pathways program are also eligible to live in University housing.

Summer housing is available for participants in conferences and camps, and for students from other higher education institutions who are enrolled in classes at the University, or receiving credit from another university.

Employees and students of the University may be considered for on-campus family housing based on availability.

Stockton University Residential Life does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, nationality, ancestry, age, sex/gender (including pregnancy), marital status, domestic partnership status, familial status, religion, affectional or sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait, genetic information, liability for service in the Armed Forces of the United States, or disability.
