Stockton University is committed to provide financial aid assistance to those students requiring and qualifying for such assistance under established criteria.

The Financial Aid Program of the University is administered by the Director of Financial Aid.

The Financial Aid Program will encompass grants, loans, and employment so that no qualified student will be denied a University education as long as University administered funds are available.

No person shall, on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, nationality, ancestry, age, sex/gender (including pregnancy), marital status, civil union status, domestic partnership status, familial status, religion, affectional or sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait, genetic information, liability for service in the Armed Forces of the United States, or disability, including perceived disability, physical, mental and/or intellectual disabilities, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under financial aid programs.

Disbursement of financial aid funds administered by the University is the responsibility of the Vice President for Administration and Finance. Functionally, this responsibility is exercised through the Bursars' Office that reports to the Office of Enrollment Management.
