Policy File Number: VI-45
Approved By: Board of Trustees

A student who withdraws from the University or has a reduction in academic load may be eligible for a refund of a portion of tuition and fees based upon the student's status as full-time or part-time and the timing of the withdrawal from University or the reduction in academic load.

Refunds of some or all of a student's payments of tuition and fees after the deadlines listed in the Academic Calendar may be warranted in extraordinary circumstances that are beyond a student's control, such as military service or a serious illness requiring home or hospital care.
