I. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

It is a violation of this procedure to engage in conduct that is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent and is objectively offensive as to substantially disrupt or undermine a person's ability to participate in or receive the benefits, services, or opportunities of the University based upon any of the protected categories referred to in Policy I-120: Student Policy Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment in the Academic / Education Environment (Policy I-120). Cases alleging sexual misconduct are subject to the University Sexual Misconduct Procedure.

1. All persons have the right and are encouraged to immediately report suspected violations of Policy I-120.
2. Complaints of prohibited discrimination/harassment can be reported to either the Chief Officer for EEO and Compliance or to any supervisory employee of the University.

Every effort should be made to report complaints promptly. Delays in reporting may not only hinder a proper investigation but may also unnecessarily subject the targeted person to continued prohibited conduct. All employees are required to report alleged violations of Policy I-120 to the Office of Equal Opportunity and Institutional Compliance.

3. The University shall maintain a written record of the discrimination / harassment complaints received. Written records shall be maintained as confidential records to the extent practicable and appropriate.

4. During the initial intake of a complaint, the Chief Officer for EEO and Compliance or their designee will obtain information regarding the complaint and determine if interim supportive measures are necessary to prevent continued violations of Policy I-120.
5. At the discretion of the Chief Officer for EEO and Compliance, a prompt, thorough, and impartial investigation into the alleged harassment or discrimination will occur.
6. For formal complaints under Policy I-120, an investigatory report will be prepared by the Chief Officer for EEO and Compliance (or designee) when the investigation is completed. The report will include, at a minimum:
 - a. A summary of the complaint;
 - b. A summary of the parties' positions;
 - c. A summary of the facts developed through the investigation; and
 - d. An analysis of the allegations and the facts.

The investigatory report will be submitted to the Office of Care and Community Standards for resolution consistent with Procedure 1032 - Campus Hearing Board - Students.

7. An individual also may contact the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights about allegations that the University has discriminated against someone on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age. The person or organization filing the complaint need not be a victim of the alleged discrimination, but may complain on behalf of another person or group.
