Call for Proposals – R&PD

The R&PD fund for research and creative work makes available $195,000 to be awarded for FY15. An additional $100,000 will again be available to support course releases/overloads but new for FY15 – requests can be for either Fall 2014 or Spring 2015 semesters.

Proposals may request course release/overload and/or funds depending on what the project needs to be successful. Faculty requesting course releases are encouraged to work directly with Program Coordinators, Directors, Deans and/or Assistant Deans to request a schedule that best meets the needs of the project.

We invite proposals which have the potential to lead to significant outside funding, creative work in the arts, pedagogical studies, and publication in any field of learning. Projects aligned with the 2020 themes are welcomed.

Proposals are due by 5:00pm on February 15, 2014. Please submit an electronic/scanned copy of the entire application package to the Grants Office at grants@stockton.edu as well as one original hard copy with signatures to E-226.

GRC's Funding Competitiveness Conference

As you plan for the new year, consider attending GRC's Funding Competitiveness Conference on February 19-22, 2014 in Washington DC.

The conference is designed to give opportunities to network with fellow GRC colleagues while also giving access to a wide range of federal agency programs. The upcoming conference will feature the National Science Foundation's undergraduate STEM programs, the Department of Education's Fiscal Year 14 funding priorities, the National Endowment for the Humanities' Digital Humanities program, and a two-hour National Institutes of Health grantsmanship workshop that will include a proposal review segment.

For more details about the program and registration, see the conference website. If you are interested in attending, be sure to seek approval and support from your Dean.

Save the Dates: March 19th & 20th

You are invited to participate in the 14th Annual Day of Scholarship scheduled over two days this year! During this Wednesday and Thursday event presenters will share their scholarly work and provide listeners with opportunities to engage in Stockton's academic community.

Mark the dates on your syllabus! Presentations are opportunities for student learning.

For additional information and the application to present, see the Grants Office website.

Applications due January 24, 2014!

Happy New Year!

Welcome back Faculty, Staff and Students! The Grants Office website is an excellent resource for grant seekers searching for both external and internal funding opportunities. There you will find information on Policies and Procedures, Proposal Development, Post Award, Funding Sources and Resources, IRB, Student Research Funding Opportunities and more!

Stop by the Grants Office in E-226 or call 652-4844 to speak to a Grants Office representative about your project and how we can help you achieve your goals!

Provost's Faculty Opportunities Fund

All available funds for the Provost's Faculty Opportunities Fund Fiscal Year 2014 have been awarded. A call for Fiscal Year 2015 applications will be made sometime after July 1, 2014.

Thank you for your interest in this funding opportunity. Be sure to check the Grant's Office Faculty Matrix and Student Matrix for additional internal opportunities that may fit your funding needs.
