April 2015

Plan to request support for your Scholarly Work through a number of Internal Funding Opportunities

Career Development Awards FY16 –

- For tenured faculty; priority given to those faculty who are assessed in current year.
- A pot of $23,700 is available for an average award of $1,500 for FY16.
- Guidelines are available on the Grants Office website and applications are due no later than 5:00pm, May 4, 2015.

External Funding Opportunity

Faculty Early Career Development (CAREER) Program Grants are being offered by the National Science Foundation.

The NSF is seeking applications for funding in support of junior faculty who exemplify the role of teacher-scholars through outstanding research, excellent education, and the integration of education and research within the context of their organizations' mission. Awards build a firm foundation for a lifetime of leadership in integrating education and research.

BIO, CISE, HER, and OCI proposals are due 7/21/15; ENG proposals due 7/22/15; and GEO, MPS, SBE, and OPP proposals due 7/23/14.

For additional information and guidelines visit the official Solicitation.

15th Annual Day of Scholarship

Thank you for your participation and attendance at the 15th Annual Day of Scholarship. This year boasted quite an impressive amount of Poster Presentations as well as a variety of oral presentations given over the two-day event.

Photo highlights have been posted on the Grants Office website. We are already brainstorming and looking forward to next year's event!

Scholarly Activity Citation Formatting

APA and MLA citation formatting guidelines are now available on the Grants Office website. Guidelines were established approximately five years ago as a standard to follow in the Scholarly Activity Book. Please refer to this version when citing your Scholarly work. Thank you!
