External Funding Opportunity

Preservation Assistance Grants for Smaller Institutions are being offered by the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH); Division of Preservation and Access.

The NEH is seeking applications to help small and mid-sized institutions such as libraries, museums, historical societies, archival repositories, cultural organizations, town and county records offices, and colleges and universities' improve their ability to preserve and care for their significant humanities collections.

Applications are due by May 5, 2015 for awards up to $6,000. For additional information and guidelines visit the official Solicitation and Grants.gov. The Division of Preservation and Access may be reached at 202.606.8570 or preservation@neh.gov.

The Day of Scholarship will be a two-day event once again this year. The Stockton Community is welcome and encouraged to attend both days of the event in support of those presenting!

March 24th & 25th

The first day, Tuesday, March 24th, will be Open to the Public and our Community Partners! Since classes are not in session on that day for preceptorial advising, we are offering incentive for on-campus students to attend that day as well. We hope that Faculty, Staff, Students and your invited guests from the community will visit to attend presentations from colleagues spanning a wide variety of subjects. All are invited to come share in a light breakfast served for the President's opening remarks at 10:00am as well as an afternoon snack available to those who attend. Tuesday's presentations will run from 10:00am to 3:30pm.

Wednesday the Stockton Community is invited to join us for a light breakfast and opening remarks from Provost Kesselman in the Campus Center Main Event Room at 10:30am. Presentations will run until 4:35pm that day. Both days will feature Poster presentations on display throughout the entire event in the Board of Trustees room with presenters available to answer questions 10:15am-10:30am on Tuesday and 10:45am-11:00am on Wednesday.

Additional information is available on the Grants Office website as well as the Guide Book highlighting the full schedule with individual presentation times and information.
