

Program (Coordinating Office)	Purpose	FY19 Total	Average Award	Review Process	Deadline
PROVOST/DEANS &amp; OTHER OFFICES
Provost's Professional Development Award in Faculty Precepting	Supports research on Stockton's academic advising programs. Tangible outcomes expected.	$ 4,000		Uses forms and review process. Evaluation by special committee, facilitated by the Director of Advising.	TBD
Academic Support for E-Learning	This program teams faculty participants with peer mentors (eMentors) in order to develop technology rich, on-line or hybrid courses.			Participant applications solicited via campus email. A two page form must be completed as well as a face to face Q&A session. Applications reviewed by the mentors and appropriate technical staff.	Check E-Learning/ITEE Website
20/20 Initiatives	Support provided for programs/projects that address a 2020 Initiative-- Learning, Engagement, Global Perspectives or Sustainability--and benefit the University.			Proposal reviewed initially by 2020 LEGS Initiative Teams. If supported, next review by 2020 Steering Committee who then recommends proposals that advance to President for final consideration. Recommendation includes issues of governance or administrative pathway appropriate for project.	See the 2020 Strategic Planning Website
Junior Faculty Awards (Dean's Office)	Provides start-up and seed money to new faculty		Formula Based	PI prepares short request and justification to Dean.	TBD
Provost Program Assessment Funds	To support and facilitate assessment in a manner that is equitable across programs and faculty.		$1,000/award	Submit applications to the Provost Office via the Programs Dean. Deans will respond to program requests in ways that treat programs fairly and equitably.	Open Beginning July 1st
SCOSA Award	Funding to support scholarly or artistic projects related to aging and consistent with SCOSA's mission.	$ 10,000		Uses forms and review process. Evaluation by special committee, facilitated by the Director of SCOSA.	TBD
STUDENT FUNDING
Research Experiences for Undergraduates (Dean's Office)	The REU program supports research and research-related endeavors for both the faculty member and his/her undergraduate student working on a particular project.		Up to $1,000/student $500/faculty	Committee of deans makes recommendations to the Provost. The Provost's Office will give preference to projects that are likely to be published or disseminated in public forums
Student Travel Funds - Graduate (Provost Office)	Supports graduate students involved in creative activity or presenting/co-presenting research which is within-- or closely related to -- the student's program of study.		Up to $1250/student	Committee of deans makes recommendations to the Provost. The Provost's Office will give preference to projects that are likely to be published or disseminated in public forums	First come, first served until funds are exhausted
Student Travel Funds - Undergraduate (Provost Office)	Supports undergraduate students involved in creative activity or presenting/co-presenting research which is within-- or closely related to -- the student's program of study.		Up to $1250/student	Committee of deans makes recommendations to the Provost. The Provost's Office will give preference to projects that are likely to be published or disseminated in public forums	First come, first served until funds are exhausted