President's Report to the Stockton Community:
January 31st, 2017

Welcome back everyone! This semester we are jumping right into some exciting projects, events and campaigns! First, I would like to emphasize the importance of unity and inclusivity during this difficult time in our nation. Whether you are an immigrant, refugee, or Muslim American know that you are welcome here. You are what make us a beautiful and diverse nation. We stand in solidarity with our Stockton community members who are impacted by the recent executive orders. In light of this, please join us for a Rally on Monday February 6th from 1-2 pm in the Campus Center Grand Hall. The Bias Free Campaign that I have been working on with other campus partners is in its final stages. I'd like to thank Dr. Kesselman for inviting me to the Senior Leadership Council (SLC) on Thursday, Jan. 26th to present the campaign we initiated. I am deeply appreciative of the administrations' immediate support in helping us make this a reality. I look forward to releasing the final product to you all and the student body. Thank you to everyone who attended the Woman's March on Washington and to everyone who helped us organize such a successful and meaningful experience.

I hope that each of you were able to attend the Dear World photoshoot today in the C-D atrium. The storytelling portion of the event will be this evening from 8-9 pm in the Campus Center Event room. I am proud that Senate was able to be a sponsor for an amazing project that has brought so many of us together. Thank you Dr. Santana, Amy Jones and the entire planning team for bringing this to Stockton! Tomorrow we will be hosting the third annual World Hijab Day at 6:30 pm in the Event Room. The mission of the event is to educate and foster awareness about the hijab and what it symbolizes for Muslim women. This annual event has been an opportunity for the campus community to shatter stereotypes and come together. I'd like to thank everyone who joined the MLK Day of Service project, bringing Joy and Toys to Syria. Along with other organizations, we will be collecting toys, as well as toiletries to send to refugees abroad during the months of February and March. Winter Training occurred this past weekend. As a team, we are always reflecting and evaluating on how we can continually better serve this student body and community. Let us know how we are doing, and what other improvements we can make to make your experience here at Stockton the absolute best.
