

Stockton PAC Presents Chad Stuart and Jeremy Clyde at the Cape May Convention Center

Part of Stockton Goes to the Beach Summer Concert Series

For Immediate Release

Tuesday, July 02, 2013

Contact: Suzé DiPietro
 Interim Director, Stockton PAC
 Galloway Township, NJ 08205
 Suze.DiPietro@stockton.edu
 (609) 652-4927

Galloway Township, NJ – The 12th annual Stockton Goes to the Beach Summer Concert Series continues at the Cape May Convention Center in Cape May, NJ for the summer of 2013. Chad Stuart and Jeremy Clyde are back and they will grace the stage on Monday, August 5 at 8 p.m.

Tickets are priced at $35 and may be ordered online at www.capemaycity.com or by calling 1-855-708-9699 or by going to the Cape May Convention Center, 714 Beach Avenue in Cape May.

From humble beginnings in coffee houses and folk clubs in London, Chad Stuart and Jeremy Clyde were 'discovered' by famed movie composer John Barry and recorded a string of hits: "Yesterday's Gone," "Summer Song," "Willow Weep For Me," "If I Loved You," "Before and After" and "Distant Shores."

As former drama students, they were quickly snapped up by Hollywood ("We had long hair and could string a sentence together"), appearing as themselves in legendary television shows including The Dick Van Dyke Show, The Patty Duke Show, Laredo (a western!) and Batman.

-more-

-continued from page 1-

As the turbulent '60s drew to a close, they produced their best studio work (Of Cabbages & Kings and The Ark), but Jeremy's heart was in his acting career. He returned to England to perform on the London stage while Chad remained in Los Angeles working as an arranger and record producer. A brief reunion and album in the 1980s failed to catch the imagination of the public and that, seemingly, was the end of that.

They were gone but not forgotten it seems. With 37 re-releases of their albums, re-runs of their TV shows and "Summer Song" heard not only on oldies radio, but in the movies (Rushmore and Princess Diaries) and the Sports Heaven spots at the 2006 Super Bowl, Chad & Jeremy have retained their own niche in the national consciousness.

Serendipity intervened in the summer of 2003 with a PBS TV music special. Since then they have performed all over the United States, Canada and the Philippines. In 2008 they released ARK-eology, an album featuring the ultimate re-recordings of their favorite classic songs, and will soon release a live album of their popular concert shows.

Armed with guitars, piano, mandolin, video clips from their TV shows and their irrepressible humor, they give their audiences an evening to remember.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts and by funds from the National Endowment for the Arts.

#

STOCKTON
PAC RICHARD STOCKTON COLLEGE
PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

The Richard Stockton College Performing Arts Center is located in the M-Wing of the college's main campus at 101 Vera King Farris Drive, Galloway, NJ 08205-9441
Box Office: 609-652-9000