Galloway Twp., NJ – Dr. Yehuda Bauer will present a free lecture, “Daring to Resist: Jewish Resistance During the Holocaust” on Tuesday, October 23rd from 4:00 – 6:00 pm in the Performing Arts Center (PAC). Dr. Bauer, a Former Ida E. King Holocaust Scholar at Stockton, is currently at Yad Vashem, the Holocaust Martyrs and Heroes Remembrance Authority, in Israel.

This presentation is sponsored by Stockton’s Holocaust Resource Center. Funding was provided by a grant from The Beatrice Fox Auerbach Foundation Advisory Board of the Endowment Foundation of the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford. New Jersey educators can receive Professional Development Hours (PDH) for attendance.

Professor Bauer’s lecture will highlight the award-winning film Daring to Resist about Jewish resistance during the Holocaust. Yehuda Bauer will enrich his lecture with stories based upon his research on Jews who fought against the Nazi Regime through spiritual and physical resistance. Dr. Yehuda Bauer is recognized as one of the world’s leading authorities on the Holocaust and was a recipient of the esteemed Israel Prize in 1998.

For additional information please, contact Stockton’s Holocaust Resource Center at (609) 652-4699.
