

16th annual 'Salute to Stockton' Speaker Series Set at Temple Emeth Shalom

Faculty Members to Present Talks Following Sabbath Eve Services

For Immediate Release

Thursday, June 26, 2013

Contact: Maryjane Briant
Office of Media Relations
Galloway Township, NJ 08205
Maryjane.Briant@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4593

Margate, NJ- Temple Emeth Shalom in Margate will host the "Salute to Stockton" annual guest speakers program for the 16th consecutive summer. This popular program features faculty members from The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey.

Rabbi Gordon Geller, longtime Stockton faculty member, said the talks are one of the highlights of the year at his congregation.

"What began as an idea to bring Stockton's wealth of talented speakers into our community one summer has evolved into a much-anticipated annual tradition," Rabbi Geller said. "We're very excited about this important example of the college's partnership with and outreach to our community."

The series of talks will take place at the Temple in the sanctuary during Sabbath eve services starting at 7:30 p.m. The Temple is located at 8501 Ventnor Avenue in Margate (near the corner of Ventnor and Jerome avenues.) The events are free and open to the public. Refreshments are served after the service.

Following is the schedule of speakers:

Friday July 19: Adjunct Instructor, School of General Studies, Michael Dickerman

Friday July 26: Associate Professor of Business Studies, Dr. Michael Busler

Friday Aug. 2: Professor of Business Studies, Dr. Jennifer Barr

Friday Aug. 23: Distinguished Professor of Holocaust and Genocide Studies, Dr. Carol Rittner